2025 Scholarship Award

The Chino Police Officers' Foundation (CPOF) is a 503(c) organization focused on community outreach, particularly towards the city's youth. Established in the aftermath of Officer Russ Miller's death while on duty in 2000, the foundation aims to continue Miller's legacy of giving back to the community.

As an integral part of our community's future, the Chino Police Officer's Foundation (CPOF) is committed to helping you reach your aspirations. Regardless of whether your path leads you to a junior college, trade school, or 4-year university, we're here to support you.
